

Hospital and Home Care Collaboration

A Conference to Explore Collaborative Hospital-Home Care Solutions for Addressing Community Health Needs

You are invited to join your peers as the Home Care Association of New York State (HCA) and the Iroquois Healthcare Alliance (IHA) (the regional hospital association in the state that comprises most of the state's rural and small community hospitals) offer their members a complimentary one-day conference that will provide critical information on insights and pathways for collaborating partners to work together in addressing and creating solutions to community health priorities as well as their infrastructures.

The conference is geared toward executives, planners, clinical and fiscal directors from hospitals, home care agencies and other provider partners.
