Act now so you can continue to improve your quality outcomes and prepare for expected Pay for Performance changes in the coming year. The Center for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) recently revised the Quality Outcome Risk Adjustment Model used to compare providers on the Home Care Compare Web Site. So how has this model changed and what OASIS-C elements are now used to perform risk adjustment for your agency's quality outcomes?

This program will review the recent changes in the 2010 Risk Adjustment Model, and discuss specific OASIS-C elements that impact critical agency quality outcomes. Hear what your peers are doing to ensure leadership and staff are updated on these critical quality outcome risk adjustment model changes.

Program Goals:

1. Identify critical revisions to the Home Health Risk Adjustment Model for Quality Outcomes;
2. Clarify how these changes may affect your expanded Home Care Compare scores;
3. Utilize tips and tools to clearly identify OASIS-C elements that impact accurate agency quality outcomes;
4. Discuss strategies to enhance accuracy on focused OASIS assessment items that will now impact your quality outcomes.
